Bourbon Circuit Court.

Judge Stout convened the Circuit Court Tuesday morning and the commonwealth docket was taken up. The call of the docket, which was the result of a number of indictments found at the last term of court, revealed a large number of bills for selling liquor to minors. In every instance the violators pleaded guilty to the charge against them and were given the minimum fine. When the call of the docket was completed almost all the indictments were wiped out.

Indictments against Ida Wiclox and Margaret Harrington, colored, were filed away pending their good behavior and the defendants were ordered to report to the court at the June term. Those against Sallie Warfield and Millie Christie were dismissed with leave to redocket.

Sarah Lloyd, charged with maintaining a nuisance, the indictments being found at the sitting of the grand jury in June, pleaded guilty to the charge and on one count was fined $150 while the other indictment was dismissed at the instance of Commonwealth's Attorney Robert B. Franklin. Those of the saloon men who were fined for violation of the liquor laws were as follows:

John Johnson, one charge, $50 and costs; Will Cain dismissed.

James Porter and Robert Spencer, two counts, $100; two charges dismissed.

John Dickey and C. B. McShane, two counts, $100; three charges dismissed.

Ed Slattery, two counts, $100; two charges dismissed.

Albert Lyons, one count, $50.

George Duvall, one count, $50.

E. F. Burnett, one count, $50.

L. Saloshin, one count, $50.

T. F. Steadman, one count, $50.

No jury cases were tried and the jury was dismissed until this morning at 9 o'clock. The grand jury, which went into its session Monday morning, continued its deliberations until Wednesday afternoon when it adjourned for Thanksgiving to resume again this morning.

THEATRICAL.

"AROUND THE CLOCK."

"Around the Clock" signifies a laugh to every tick of the clock, with a lot of tuneful music to wash it down and a bevy of the prettiest girls you ever saw to give it zest. If a play was written according to your personal specifications it couldn't be better for your especial entertainment than "Around the Clock." This is not mere bombastic braggadocio but facts culled from criticisms of famous critics during the extraordinary run of five hundred nights in London and three hundred nights in New York City. It is vastly different from the average "musical comedy" as it actually contains sufficient real comedy to make it a success even without the introduction of musical numbers, which can be said of but few musical comedies seen in this country. "Around the Clock" will be seen at the Paris Grand Saturday night.

That famous acrobatic comedian, Billie Ritchie, will head a company of forty exceptional singers, dancers and comedians, who positively guarantee the best evening's entertainment offered at the Grand this season. "Around the Clock" offers the most realistic "stage upon a stage" scene ever attempted. During the action of the play Billie Ritchie will offer a clever conceit entitled "The Auto that Ought to But Wouldn't." By all means wait for the big show. Special orchestra. Prices, lower floor, $1; Balcony, 75 cents; Gallery 35 cents. No free list.

"THELMA"

A special treat is promised in the forthcoming engagement of the famous Northland story of "Thelma." This world-read book will be presented in dramatic form at the Paris Grand for one night only Monday Dec. 4. "Thelma" is without doubt the most effective of Marie Corelli's lighter stories, and it lends itself to the dramatist's scheme, making it a faultless play. It is a Norwegian play, with a dash of the weird mysticism of the old Vikings, the gods Odin and Thor. The beautiful love story of Thelma and Sir Phillip Errington, their marriage and Thelma's unhappy life in London and the return of Thelma, heart broken to her old home in the Alten Ford, Norway, followed by her husband to her snow covered home and their happy reconciliation by the light of the Midnight Sun, all presented by a company of competent players and mounted with special scenery for every act.

A powerful side story embraces the picturesque figure of Olaf Guldmar, Thelma's father, a descendant of the Viking Norsemen. Later he is stabbed to death by the witch and he goes before he dies aboard his Norse sea boat, sets it afire and drifts down the stream in his crimson shroud of flame.

A scenic production will be given in detail, the fire ship, the vision of the death of the presiding Valkyrie and the Midnight Sun. Seats will be placed on sale at Mitchell & Blakemore's and reservations should be made early as this promises to be the best attended attraction of the season. Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

The Inauguration.

The inauguration of Governor-elect James B. McCreary, which will take place on December 12, promises to be the most noteworthy event in the history of the Capitol city and the Executive Committee is exerting itself to the utmost to make the event a grand success.

The utter impossibility of extending to the individuals invitations to participate in the ceremonies, parade, etc., incident to the inauguration has been realized and the committee is urging the citizens of the State, regardless of party affiliation, though a general invitation to take a part in the event. The invitation issued is as follows:

"The Inauguration of James B. McCreary, as Governor, and Edward J. McDermott, as Lieutenant Governor, will take place at the Capitol, Frankfort, at noon on Tuesday, December 12, 1911.

"All Kentuckians, regardless of party affiliation, are most cordially invited to attend the ceremonies incident to the Inauguration.

"Clubs and other bodies that wish to participate should notify the Executive Committee as soon as possible, in order that they may be assigned positions in the parade."

Investigation Will Proceed.

That Morgan, Rockefeller and other trust magnates consider themselves too sacred to be prosecuted for violating the law has been known for some time. But that they considered themselves too sacred to be even investigated was not known until the Stanley investigating committee was politely asked by the steel trust attorneys to abandon its inquiry because of the Wickesham suit to dissolve the trust.

Should this request be gratified it would mean that the Wickesham suit is a god send to the trust, inasmuch as it sidetracks an honest and searching investigation of a monopoly that Attorney General himself claims to be illegal. That the trust fears a continuation of the investigation by a committee that is not packed with special interest servers, more than it does a "suit to dissolve" conducted by an attorney general who was a former trust attorney, has been known for some time.

Thanks to a Democratic majority on the Stanley committee, the investigation will proceed. But wishing to be entirely fair to all concerned, the committee has discontinued public hearings until a full committee can pass on the proposition. It is already known that the committee favors a continuation of the probe.

Democrats Friendly to Labor.

Legislation helpful to the cause of the working man will be passed by the Sixty-second Congress. The labor leaders have assurances that the Democratic majority in the house will take up the subjects of employers' liability, extension of the eight hour day in government work, restriction of the power of injunction, strengthening of the safety appliances law and the prohibition of the so-called Taylor system in Government work. W. B. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the labor committee of the House, is himself an active member of the miners' union which is an assurance that labor problems will receive a fair hearing before his committee.

Democrat from New Mexico.

Although the regular or standpat Republican organization has carried a majority of members of the New Mexico Legislature chosen three weeks ago, indications are that one Democrat and one progressive Republican will be elected Senators.

Wall Street Interested.

The Clearing House Association of New York is raising a fund of $150,000, to be contributed by bankers, to aid the campaign in behalf of ex-Senator Aldrich's money scheme for the further concentration of the money power and control of credit to the country.

Youtsey's Pardon Plea Refused.

Another application to Governor Willson for a pardon of Henry Youtsey, convicted of complicity in the murder of Wm. Goebel, has been refused by Gov. Willson. He has refused the pardon once, but in the last day or two another application was made to him.

The Governor says he believes Youtsey fired the shot which killed Goebel, therefore he would not consider the application. Gov. Willson said he believed the killing of Goebel the most dastardly crime in the history of Kentucky and that it did the State much injury.

Youtsey has been notified that he must resign as president of the Christian Endeavor Society in the Frankfort penitentiary, and Curt Jett, his rival for the honor, has been notified that he cannot be a candidate.

Col. E. E. Mudd, the warden of the prison, Monday told Youtsey and Jett that in the future there would be no elections in the Christian Endeavor Society, as the president would be appointed by the chaplain, the Rev. Walter Vreeland.

The orders issued by Col. Mudd resulted from reports which reached him that Jett and Youtsey were seeking votes for the office of president of the society and had stirred up some feeling in the matter.

Harrison Growers and Ten-Year Pool.

The back may ache because the kidneys are blockaded. Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more. Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from this vicinity. W. F. Cheatham, W. Main street, Carlisle, Ky., says: "I am sure that if anyone afflicted with kidney complaint would use Doan's Kidney Pills there would be very little suffering from this source. I can say this because I have taken them and know well of their merit. I had considerable trouble from my kidneys and my back ached constantly. After stooping I had to place my hands on each side of my body as a support, for if I did not I would be unable to straighten. The passages of the kidney secretions were too frequent and it was not an uncommon thing for me to get up several times at night. Finally I procured Doan's Kidney Pills and through their use I was entirely freed from kidney trouble."

Woman's Power

Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

CAUSE AND REMEDY.

Uncertainty of the immediate future is looked upon by many men of affairs, as a blockade to enterprise and business prosperity, and this blockade is now quite apparent throughout the channels of trade.

The Presidential Election; the efforts of Congress with no fixed purpose; Organized Labor as a new factor in politics; together with other matters of greater or less import, represent at this time a chaotic conflict of separate interests, to harmonize which is now the problem before the country.

GIRL IS HELD FOR INCITING A MOB

Nebraska Young Woman Charged With a Cruel and Most Unusual Crime.

PLOTTED A LYNCHING

Four Ranchmen Hanged Her Sweetheart, and It Is Said the Girl, Believing She Would Get $7,000 Insurance, Planned It.

Valentine, Neb.—Eunice Murphy, of this place, the girl accused of having incited a mob to hang her fiancé in order that she might inherit his life insurance, has been held for the district court. The presiding judge declared that Miss Murphy is just as guilty as the men who took her sweetheart to a tree and hanged him.

Silent to all but her attorneys, despondent, but dry-eyed, Miss Eunice Murphy is composedly waiting in her jail cell the day when she shall be called to trial as accessory to the atrocious murder of Charles Sellers, her suitor.

To all appearances an unsophisticated country girl, the young woman is intelligent enough to keep quiet about her affairs. She is charged with inciting her fiancé, George Weed, his brother Alma, her cousin and former fiancé, Larry Heath, and her brother, Kenneth Murphy, to their cruel attack upon a man who had for three years sought her hand in marriage. Avarice is alleged as the motive.

Thus are all the elements of a melodrama present in her case. Taking advantage of them, she might, with a newspaper interview, clothe herself with all that morbid glamor so dear to a sensation-loving public. Yet she prefers to keep her own counsel, refusing to make the simplest statements about the affairs and referring all questioners to her lawyers.

The hanging of Sellers, June 18, by some of his neighboring ranchmen near Cody, Neb., created a sensation for a time, but when four men charged with the crime were put in jail and bound over to the district court, the excitement subsided. Now it is charged by John M. Tucker, county attorney, that Miss Murphy incited and procured the murder of Sellers, her alleged motive being to get possession of $7,000 of insurance policies and considerable personal property which she is said to have believed would be bequeathed to her upon the death of Sellers.

At the time of the killing of Sellers, it was rumored that one man in the party that hanged him to a telegraph pole was inspired by jealousy, he being a suitor of the girl.

Hutch Jack and Sellers, who lived together, were awakened one night by a knock on the door by George B. Weed. Jack knew Weed and invited him into the house. Weed had said he was making a social call. Weed asked Sellers, who was in bed in an adjoining room, to get up and come into the room where Jack and Weed were, but Sellers excused himself by saying he was not feeling well. Fifteen minutes later, Jack says, a party of men, composed of Kenneth Murphy, Harry Heath and Alma Weed, came to the Jack home. They were armed and they covered Jack and commanded him to remain in the room where he was. George Weed told Sellers to get up.

"We are after you," he said, according to the affidavit of the county attorney. Sellers arose and Harry Heath is alleged to have thrown a rope around his neck and pulled it tight, and George Weed, Heath, Murphy and Alma Weed are charged with having dragged Sellers out of the house to a nearby telephone pole and hanged him.

Horses in Nail-Studded Car.

Savannah, Ga.—For transporting horses and mules for 90 hours in a car studded, sides and bottom, with heavy nails, which maimed or killed all the animals, a Georgia railway has been made defendant in a suit for damages. The animals had been transferred from their original car and were in another which had nails sticking out all around.

Chick's Curious Upbringing. A little Andalusian chicken owned by a Kelsa farmer has had a curious upbringing so far. A pigeon recently built its nest about fourteen feet from the ground at Floors Home farm, and on the nest being examined the bird was found to have hatched the Andalusian chicken, the chick's mother having apparently deposited the egg in the pigeon's nest. Then the chicken was given to the bantam hen, which has taken to the young bird as if it had been its own.

Few Cities in India.

There are few cities in India. Its stupendous population consists of farm laborers. India is one vast farm—one almost interminable stretch of fields. The jungles are full of animals, the air is alive with birds and fowls of almost all kinds, the waters are alive with fish. Vegetable life is abundant and varied.

Whatever Thy Hand Findeth.

"I have been a great deal happier," she said at last, "since I've given up thinking about what is easy and pleasant and being discontented because I could not have my own will. Our life is determined for us—and it makes the mind very free when we give up wishing and only think of bearing what is laid upon us, and doing what is given us to do."—George Eliot.

Was Suspicious.

"That was suspicious," said Senator Newlands, in an address in Reno on irrigation. "That was as suspicious on our opponents' part as the action of the railroad conductor. A passenger, having lost his ticket, paid this conductor in cash, and then said: 'Why do you put half my fare in your coat pocket and the other half in your trousers?' 'Well, the company's got to have something, ain't it?' was the reply."

Unfounded Suspicions.

"You don't look as if you'd ever had anything to do with water in all your born days," said the hard-fisted woman standing inside the kitchen door. "Nevertheless, ma'am," replied Tuford Knutt, stiffening himself up and speaking in a tone of insulted dignity, "when I was a young man I run a ferry for a whole year!"—Youth's Companion.

The War Game.

War is an extremely simple game. A number of armed men are sicked upon another body of armed men, and they engage in the highly exciting and diverting sport of maiming and slaying one another. The contestant which can slaughter the most combatants and starve the most non-combatants is adjudged the winner. Simple, is it not?

Freak Potato.

A freak potato was dug up lately in a Belfast garden. The potato, in the course of its growth had forced its way right through the center of a beef shank bone. It had grown to an enormous size too, and was firmly attached to the bone, bulging out both above and below it.

Ended the Dry Spell.

She had a voice like a siren, and when she sang, "Mid play sure, sand palaces, the beam a rome. Be it averse oh wum buld there, snow play comb," and so on to the conclusion, there wasn't a dry eye in the room.

Unusual Death.

To fall to death in a seething whirlpool was the fate of two Swiss lovers a few days ago. The couple were visiting the famous Handegg Falls near Melringen when a small bridge over the River Aare collapsed and they fell 240 feet into the whirlpool below.

An Eulogy.

A newspaper, in speaking of a deceased citizen, said: "We knew him as old Ten Per Cent.—the more he had the less he spent—the more he got the less he lent—he's dead—we don't know where he went; but if his soul to heaven is sent—he'll own the harp and charge 'em rent."

The Way to His Heart.

The Woman's Home Companion has been collecting the favorite recipes of husbands. The results show that of all dishes American men like best of all strawberry shortcake and chicken pie.

Sure To Be Found.

Nothing seems so hopelessly lost, when it is lost, as a heart; yet nothing, when it is lost, is by the experience of the centuries so absolutely certain of recovery.—Puck.

Inexplicable.

One of the strangest things in this world is why the kind of woman who is proud of her intellectuality nearly always marries a man who likes to tinker with sick chickens.

Long Distance Camera.

The most successful thing which has been recently introduced in the way of a long distance camera is one which makes use of reflectors inside the camera to get the enlarged object.

A Great Truth.

Flats may be bad things, but houses in which the maidless housekeeper toils upstairs with a baby on one arm and a bucket of coal on the other are worse.

BABE'S TOMB FOUND RATTLESNAKE DEN

Cannot Change Resting Place of Child Until Colony of Reptiles Is Exterminated.

New Orleans, La.—A battle to the death with a den of rattlesnakes will be necessary before a baby's grave can be removed from beneath the crumbling ruins of Fort McComb, near here, when workmen begin their operations next year preliminary to the erection of the proposed $75,000 club house of the Louisiana Motor league.

The site of the old fort is a wild and weird spot. The moss-covered structures have crumbled away, leaving the large rooms, areaways, tunnels and underground chambers to the hundreds of venomous reptiles, spiders and lizards.

Snakes Infest Tomb.

For a plain white headstone marks the grave of the infant of Sergeant Smith, which was born in 1888 and lived five weeks. A single plank serves for the primitive drawbridge that once aided soldiers in crossing the moat, now a ditch of mud the water teeming with slimy moccasins.

Rattlesnakes, seven feet long, with innumerable rattles, have been killed recently by fishermen near the fort. It is said that if a stone is thrown into the "chamber of death," where the big rattlers have their home the sounds of hissing and the shirring of rattles resemble the noise made by arousing a monster swarm of bees.

CRAB BITES FAMILY GUEST

Tethered to a Table Leg, His Crab-ship Starts Something During Dinner Hour.

Chelsea, S. I.—Do not let your little boy make a living toy of a hard-shell crab, you can never tell what will happen. John Kane, who lives on Decker avenue, caught some hard-shell crabs and his son John, five years old, appropriated the largest one. Tied a string to it and amused himself by watching it crawl backward. When he wearied of this amusement small Johnnie tethered the crab to a leg of the dining-room table and soon forgot all about it.

Kane had his brother-in-law, William Tennyson, to a crab-meat supper

Crab Bites Guest.

Suddenly Tennyson let out a yell, sprang into the air, tipping the table onto two legs, and hopped around the room. "What's the matter, William?" cried Mr. and Mrs. Kane, who feared Tennyson had gone mad. "A scorpion! A scorpion! It stung me! I'm a dead man!" shouted Tennyson. "Oh, that's my crab!" exclaimed Johnnie delightedly. "I forgot about it. Give it to me." His papa "give it to him"—where it would do the most good.

Eats 53 Corn Ears at Sitting.

Boston, Mass.—Another world's record was smashed by Charles W. Gilden, champion eater, who, in a restaurant, devoured 53 ears of corn in one hour and 55 minutes.

We are so confident that we can furnish relief for indigestion and dyspepsia that we promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who uses it according to directions who is not perfectly satisfied with the results. We exact no promises and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here where you live, and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one who is troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. If they don't please you tell us and we will quickly return your money. Three sizes 25 cents, 50 cents and $1. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store G. S. Varden & Son.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES

—Charles Rose, a Clark county farmer, bought a three year old Shorthorn steer that weighed 2,100 pounds and measured 19 hands in height. He paid 53-4 cents per pound for it. It was shipped to the Cincinnati Stock Yards and is said to have been the largest beef ever sent to that market.

—Richmond Climax: "Mr. J. B. Parkes, of Kingston neighborhood, sold his cattle last week to a buyer for an Eastern house. He had about 100 head and it was an extra good lot, though not of extra size, averaging about 1,400 pounds. Price 7 cents—the best price we have heard of lately."

—It will be very gratifying to the Bourbon county sheep growers to know that Federal Inspector A. J. Payne informed the Kentucky Live Stock Sanitary Board that he had recommended the raising of the quarantine on Kentucky sheep by April 1. The quarantine was put on on account of the prevalence of scab, Dr. Payne said that all counties except a few, this disease had nearly disappeared along the Virginia border line, and in these it might be stamped out by April 1.

—The price paid for Castleton Stock Farm in Fayette county by David M. Loe and his associates was $225,000, according to reliable information received from New York Monday night by a prominent turfman, who has been in touch with the negotiations which resulted in the sale of the noted stock farm. It is understood that Mr. Loe and some of the gentlemen interested with him in the purchase of the property will arrive in Lexington shortly after the horse sales in New York to look over the property and arrange to take possession at the time stipulated.

—The first attempt to breed Percheron horses south of the Ohio river is to be made by Henry T. Brown & Co., of Lexington, who have just established a breeding plant to be known as Cloverdale Farm, eight miles out from Lexington on the Paris pike, at interurban station No. 13. The Percheron horse, which originated in France, is used principally as a draught horse, and is much in demand for heavy hauling in cities and towns. The firm has already purchased a number of Percheron mares and stallions in Illinois and Iowa, and they are now at the farm. Another car load is expected within the next ten days. Twenty three and four year old jacks, and fifteen yearlings have also been received at the farm in the last few days.

Avoiding Hasty Opinions.

Dixie McKinley, administrator of the estate of the late Sylvester Whalen, who instituted suit against the Louisville & Nashville railroad in the Harrison Circuit Court for $25,000 damages for the death of Whalen received a verdict in the sum of $5,000 in Cynthiana Wednesday. Whalen was killed while in the discharge of his duties as yard sweeper in the Louisville & Nashville yards in this city, the accident which caused his death occurring in front of the L. & N. passenger depot on the afternoon of July 23, when an engine backed down upon him, knocking him down and badly mangling his form, death resulting instantly.

Lively Scene at L. & N. Depot.

The surroundings of the Louisville & Nashville depot presented an animated scene Wednesday evening during the arrival and departure of the late trains. The walks in front of the depot were thronged with people waiting for their trains, a large number going from here to distant points to spend Thanksgiving, while numbers who changed cars at this point were awaiting the arrival of their trains. The scene presented on this occasion would leave the impression that Paris was a metropolis and gives a fair idea of the amount of passenger traffic that passes over the L. & N. daily, but more in evidence on this occasion which is due to the holiday season.

DEATH.

—Mr. William Lawrence, 65 years old died Wednesday morning at his home on Hanson street after an illness of about three weeks. The funeral will be held this morning at ten o'clock, the services being conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan. Burial at Mt. Carmel cemetery in Nicholas county.

—Mrs. Moses C. Chaplin died at her home on Walnut Hills, Cincinnati yesterday, announcement of which was received by relatives in this city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Chaplin was formerly of this city and was a sister of Mrs. H. C. Howard, Sr., and Mrs. F. R. Armstrong.

The remains will be brought to this city for interment on Sunday, December 3 at 2 o'clock p. m.

—Miss Addie Fogg, aged 33 years, died yesterday morning at an early hour in her apartments in the Dow flats on East Main street from tuberculosis.

Miss Fogg has been in declining health for about a year. She resided with her brother, Mr. Clarence Fogg, who survives.

The deceased is a niece of Mr. S. W. Summers, of Paris and moved to this city from Mt. Sterling last May. The remains will be taken to Mt. Sterling Sunday morning on the 9:50 L. & N. train and the funeral will be held Sunday afternoon from the Christian church in that city.

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffering with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

Reflects Ultra-Violet.
Prof. J. von Kowalski, in a letter to Nature (London), describes his observations of the spectra of sunlight reflected by snowfields in Switzerland. He finds that the ultra-violet rays are reflected by snow almost in their entirety. This fact helps to explain the trying effects of such light upon the eyes, and suggests the advisability of wearing, during a period of snow and sunshine, glasses that are opaque to the ultra-violet rays.

Remarkable Fountain.
The city of Vienna possesses what is perhaps the most remarkable electric, or electrically lighted, fountain in existence. It is situated in the Schwarzenbergplatz. Underneath the fountain, in a huge cemented chamber, are placed 27 reflecting lamps, capable of producing several different luminous and colored effects. The light is transmitted through the waters of the fountain. The light power of the plant is estimated as equal to 90,000,000 candles.

British Humor.
Fashions for the season—Zebra suits are to be very popular with the gilded youth. Well, well. The natural history says: "The external qualities of the zebra are those of the ass."—London View.

Doubtful.
It is possible there may be a funnier sight than a dignified man with a long nose, an undershot jaw and bushy whiskers, trying to get a full drink at a bubbling fountain, but we doubt it.

HAPPENINGS IN THE CITIES

Curb on Sharpers in the Alien Hotels

NEW YORK.—Robbing immigrants and emigrants has long been a recognized industry around the docks of New York and proprietors of lodging houses have been taking money away from these people coming and going. Two laws recently became operative by which lodging house keepers will be compelled to give the arriving and departing persons of foreign birth something like the equivalent for money received.

Foreigners arrive all the year around, but those who depart for a visit to the old country generally begin coming to New York about October 1 and continue coming until the Christmas holidays. Then the steerage begins to bring them back, and by March nearly all are again in this country and ready to go to work.

Under the old system, runners for the lodging houses boarded the steamers and went through the steerage passengers looking for victims. No matter what country the arriving emigrant came from, there was some runner to talk to him in his native language.

When the boat had docked the runners led their victims to some lodging house, where they were made welcome as long as they had money. It often happened that an immigrant bound for some inland town and provided with a railway ticket would be detained in New York as long as he had money and then loaded on a train to go hungry to his destination. Those who go back to the "old country" in the fall on a visit are not so easy. Agents of the lodging houses, however, meet western trains, sometimes riding several hours out from New York, in search of customers. Persons thus obtained as patrons for a lodging house were furnished every opportunity to see New York while waiting for the steamer and a good many of them were out of money when sailing time came.

Under the new laws the runners are no longer allowed to board boats or swarm around the docks soliciting patronage and every lodging house keeper has to furnish a bond for the fair treatment of his patrons.

Picture Unites a Brother and Sister

AURORA, ILL.—John Stanton of Aurora and his missing sister, Mrs. G. W. Waters of Philadelphia, whom he has not seen for 20 years, have been reunited through a moving picture film, and the Aurora man has gone to make his future home with his relative.

Mrs. Waters is an actress who paid her last visit to her brother almost a quarter of a century ago when she was appearing at the Park theater in Brooklyn. Correspondence finally was dropped and Mr. Stanton waited year after year for some word from the woman. Recently his attention was called to a theater poster in Aurora and the striking resemblance between the woman and his long-lost sister caused him to buy a ticket for the performance.

As the drama was cast on the screen he recognized the nurse to the young heroine in the drama as his sister. He sought out the manager, obtained the address of the film company, and ultimately located her in Philadelphia. He recently returned from a ten weeks' visit and goes back to pass the remainder of his life at her home.

Stanton, who is 73 years old, was born in New York and served in the navy during the Civil war at the Brooklyn navy yards. After the war he moved west and became a farmer. A few years ago he moved to Aurora. The Stanton have been of a dramatic tendency and most of them have been actors and actresses. Mrs. Waters has been on the stage for 46 years and expects to remain there the rest of her life. Stanton's nephew, Barry O'Neal, is stage manager for a film company, while Mrs. O'Neal writes many of their picture dramas.

This is the second time that a moving picture film has been the means of bringing together separated relatives. Two years ago a moving picture in Goshen, Ind., showed an ostrich farm. Suddenly a woman in the audience cried out and swooned.

She had recognized a boy leading an ostrich in the picture as her son, who had run away with a circus a year or more before. Communication with the company which made the film resulted in the boy being restored to his mother.

Pastor Quits Pulpit to Be Expressman

CHICAGO.—Rev. Henry M. McDowell has preached his last sermon at the Woodlawn Park Congregational church. He resigned because certain members of the church objected to his action in donning overalls and working as an express messenger at $18 a week to augment his salary of $120 a month from the church.

That manual labor lowered the dignity of the pastor, was the objection made by the members of the church, and according to friends of the pastor, while they were unable to have him ousted from the pulpit, they made things so unpleasant for him that he resigned.

The pastor's resignation and the disclosure of the actions of the members who forced it, has caused so much indignation toward them on the part of other members of the church that they have withdrawn their memberships.

Corn Fed Catfish Latest From Kansas

TOPEKA, Kan.—Ever hear of a corn-fed, pedigreed catfish? Kansas has some and is going to have more. Prof. L. I. Dyche, curator of the Natural History museum of the State university and state fish and game warden, has undertaken to improve the breed of catfish by the methods employed by expert breeders in improved hogs, cattle, sheep and chickens and the methods advised by sociologists to improve the human race—careful selection of mates.

At the state fish hatchery at Pratt they are growing corn-fed catfish that are as much of an improvement over the ordinary catfish, just by feeding alone, as the catfish is better than a buffalo as far as food value is concerned. The corn-fed Kansas steer and hog bring the highest prices in the markets.

"We have one small pond at the hatchery that is flooded and lined with cement," said Prof. Dyche. "After the spawning season is over and the little fish are old enough that they don't need the mother's care, we take the big ones out of the spawning ponds and put them into this cement pond, where we can feed them and they can not eat the little ones. The worst trouble we have in a fish hatchery is the old fish eating young ones.

"In this cement pond we put, among other varieties, a large number of catfish. Bass eat live food, frogs, fish, worms, snakes and such, while the crapple and catfish live chiefly on vegetables. Every day we put chopped cornmeal and cornbread into that pond for the catfish. We put little goldfish and small carp into it for the bass. The crapple eat corn and other vegetables and if he gets real hungry he will eat carp or beef, liver or grasshoppers.

"We have catfish in other ponds that are not fed on corn and we have been eating both the corn-fed catfish and those that are not corn fed and there is all the difference in the world in the flavor of the two."

VICIOUS MULE TOSSES SHOER TWENTY FEET

Grabs Blacksmith by Seat of Pants and Throws Him Across the Shop.

Linton, Ind.—E. B. Martindale's estate, incorporated, is made defendant in a suit for damages brought by James B. Dillon, on a charge that is not of the ordinary. Clayton Baker, who is employed on the Martindale farm of 1,200 acres, located southeast of Linton, took a mule to Dillon, who is a blacksmith, to be shod.

Baker knew the animal was vicious, according to the allegations of the complaint, but said nothing to Dillon about it. Dillon proceeded with his work, and while stooping over shoeing a fore foot the animal seized him by the pants with its teeth and threw him twenty feet. He alighted on an iron floor with such violence that the tendons of one leg were torn loose and his left knee was fractured so that he is still compelled to walk on crutches though the injuries were sustained last May. He alleges he will be a cripple for life and asks damages in the sum of $6,000. The defendant is the estate of the late Elijah B. Martindale of Indianapolis.

BIG APE ATTACKS OFFICER

Huge Orang-Outang Broke From His Cage on Ship and Had to Be Killed.

Charlestown, Mass.—A thrilling fight between a giant orang-outang and half a dozen men was described by the officers of the British steamship Patana, which arrived here recently from the far east.

One day when the vessel was emerging from the Mediterranean into the Atlantic the orang-outang wrenched the steel bars loose and made its way on deck. Mr. Pedday, the purser, was alone on deck and was leaning against the rail, unconscious of impending danger. Stealthily the animal approached and in a moment was on the purser's back, its paws closing on his throat. Mr. Pedday's screams brought the second officer, Mr. Wilcox, and several sailors to the scene. Mr. Wilcox picked up a heavy belaying pin and after a sharp struggle ended the existence of the purser's savage assailant.

Baby in Fireless Cooker.

Willows, Cal.—A fireless cooker has come to the rescue of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pieper of this place in sustaining life in their twin children, born the other day. Curled in separate compartments of this kitchen appliance, the boy, who weighed but two pounds at his birth, and the girl, who weighed three, are sleeping their way to health when not receiving food by aid of a medicine dropper. When the twins were born the doctors declared that an incubator was the only thing that could save their lives. Nothing of the kind was to be found in the vicinity, but the fireless cooker proved equal to the emergency.

An umbrella with windows is the latest in Paris. The reason given for the innovation is the difficulty of getting about on account of the danger caused by traffic, especially in wet weather.

A New Rochelle whose yard needed fall attention, called at the hardware department of a New York store "I am in need of some lawn hose," he said. "Try the hosiery department, second floor," responded the young lady in charge.

Disastrous Curiosity.

The curiosity of some peasants as to what was inside an unexploded shell they found in a field near the artillery station at the village of Milosna, near Warsaw, the other morning, proved disastrous. When they attempted to open the shell it exploded, killing three of them and wounding 16.

APE ON BIG SPREE WRECKS HOTEL BAR

"Dare-Devil Spike," a Native of South Africa, Raises the Devil Generally.

FIREWATER HIS FINISH

Monkey Takes Liking to Liquor and Gives Good Imitation of a Pittsburgh Millionaire on an "O Be Joyful."

New York.—John Hampton, a prosperous auto dealer, recently returned from South Africa, bringing a large ape, which he christened "Dare-Devil Spike." He and Spike found accommodations at the Hirschhorn's hotel here, and one day Hampton let Spike "set 'em up" for everyone in the hotel bar. This gave Spike his first drink, and gave him the desire for it. Nobody minded much, however, until the monkey drifted downstairs from its master's room shortly before dawn and gave a good imitation of a Pittsburgh millionaire on a spree.

One morning recently before the bar room was opened for the day the ape appeared to have a thirst of the sort which only seasoned drinkers are supposed to possess. Spike sneaked out of Hampton's room, slid down the banister and deftly entered the bar room through an open transom. When Carl Hassenfleck, Hirschhorn's lunch-counter man, appeared on the scene shortly after 5:00 a. m. he found Spike in the state of exhilaration peculiar to some college students after winning a football game.

Spike greeted Hassenfleck with a shrill cry of welcome, followed by a heavy tumbler, which missed the man's right ear only because Hassenfleck had learned to dodge in his youth. Jimmy Samponi, a porter, went to the lunch man's rescue, with the result that the two men passed an unenviable time hiding behind the lunch counter in a storm of falling steins, bottles, plates, knives, forks, and other objects. Several of Spike's outshoots, Hassenfleck said afterward, would win for him a place in a major league. Hampton was aroused from bed by employees of the hotel, who observed the excitement from afar. He entered the saloon, and Spike, delighted at fresh sport, took aim at him with the largest glass left standing.

"O, mix on that!" Hampton exclaimed. "Come on! I'll buy you a regular drink!"

The monkey instantly let a plate fall and leaped joyfully toward its master, who seized him tightly and transported him to his room to sleep off the effects of the spree. Hirschhorn then took an inventory of his loss, which he conservatively estimated at "more than $50." Hampton said if he couldn't make Spike pay he'd pay himself.

Funeral for Live Corpse.

Pottsville, Pa.—Relatives of Peter Magal, who was an inmate of the Schuylkill county almshouse, several miles south of this place, were notified of his death and made preparations for his funeral. When the undertaker received the remains at Shenandoah the mourners crowded around in tears. When the casket was opened it was found the body was not that of their relative. Indignant, the family of the dead man sent the undertaker to the almshouse to get the right body. When he reached the institution he found Magal hale and hearty. The body shipped in mistake was that of Charles Gardin. It was promptly sent back and consigned to the anatomical board.

Ladies, Swipe R. R. Towels.

San Francisco, Cal.—Twenty-one thousand dollars' worth of towels were "lost" by the Southern Pacific railroad last year and from that reason women who ride on its trains and boats will be compelled to furnish their own towels hereafter.

Some Oil Spouter.
The mammoth gusher of the Pearson oil interests in the Potrero de Llano field, state of Vera Cruz, Mex., was recently allowed to perform for 20 minutes for officials of the Texas company and the Gulf Mining Refining company, according to the Mining and Scientific Press. The gate valve was opened for the first time since the well was brought under control, and a column of oil shot into the air to a height of 490 feet. The flow was estimated at 100,000 barrels daily. With the possible exception of the Dos Bocas gusher, which burned out, the Potrero is the greatest in the history of the oil industry.

How to Be Immortal.
Only one-cell animals which have no regeneration are immortal and never grow old. Physical immortality, deathless youth is possible, but you must be an infusorian or a yeast plant to attain it, and one wouldn't even be clam or a jellyfish for the price. The process has no limits any more than has beginnings. Life is just that, a third dying that two-thirds may live, whether it be the single cell or the body.—Dr. Woods Hutchinson in Sampton's.

Peculiar Insect.
There is a peculiar insect, found in the Malay peninsula and called the "lantern fly," which is remarkable for its wings. It was only after several specimens had been captured by European naturalists and brought west for careful examination that it was discovered that a curious projection on the front of the insect's head, a kind of nose with a crease in it, was the leaping organ. When bent back under the abdomen and suddenly released it sends the little creature flying.—Harper's Weekly.

Shock Brought Back Speech.
Sarah Alice Stevenson of Padham, Lancashire, England, recovered her speech recently in a remarkable manner. While engaged in household duties her clothing caught fire and in her terror the young woman screamed aloud. The flames were immediately extinguished, and, to her joy, Miss Stevenson found that she had recovered her power of speech, which she had lost six years ago.

—One of the largest and handsomest entertainments ever given in Paris was the beautiful reception Mrs. Marion H. Dailey gave Tuesday afternoon at Elks Hall. About five hundred invitations were issued and more than four hundred guests were received during the hours from two until five o'clock.

The club rooms are handsomely furnished and the entire walls were gracefully portiered in Southern smilax with here and there flower vases of tall red and white chrysanthemums. The chandeliers were also draped in ropes of smilax and each electric light globe was shaded in soft colored shades which threw a becoming light over the handsomely gowned guests and upon entering one imagined themselves transplanted into a veritable fairyland.

Dr. Dailey very graciously greeted the guests at the head of the receiving line and next stood Mrs. Dailey very handsome in a gown of white crepe. Mrs. Dailey's mother, Mrs. Mayme Fithian, also received with Mrs. Dailey. She wore a lovely black lace gown with touches of white lace. Those who assisted in entertaining were Mrs. Frederick A. Wallis, Mrs. E. M. Dickson, Mrs. Bruce Steele, Mr. James Duncan Bell, Mrs. N. Ford Brent, and Misses Ollie Butler and Kate Alexander.

The ball room, where luncheon was served, was lovely in all of its appointments. In the center a large round table was attractive with a pink satin cover with white drapery lace. In the center was a tall, silver candelabra with pink shades, and surrounding this were silver platters of pink and white confections.

The beautiful little daughter of the house, little Miss Louise Dailey, wearing a dainty frock of white lace over blue, assisted by her little friend, Miss Joe Fithian, wearing a pretty white dress greeted the guests at the door and received the cards. Screened behind a ban of palms and ferns the Lexington Opera House Orchestra played a program of sweet music during the receiving hours.

The small tables were very artistically arranged around the center table and each had pretty lace covers with centerpieces of silver candlesticks with pink shades.

Those who assisted in the dining room were Mesdames Charles N. Fithian, Charles D. Webb, Frank M. Fairies, Frank Fithian, W. G. Dailey, Misses Lorinne Butler, Helen Frank, Elizabeth Erby, Belle Horton, Mary Woodford, Mary Clay, Sallie Lockhart.

—Mrs. B. A. Frank was the charming hostess Friday to a several course luncheon given to a number of friends. The home was lovely with its decorations of white and green, chrysanthemums and roses in profusion being used throughout the house. Each table with its lovely lace cover had for a centerpiece a silver vase of white roses and ferns. Mrs. Frank's guests were Mesdames Carey E. Morgan, C. D. Webb, C. M. Thomas, Lizzie Walker, James McClure, Oakford Hinton, Thomas Henry Clay, Sr., Frederick Wallis, J. Frank Clay, Harry Clay, Rudolph Davis, John Davis, Albert Hinton, Thornwell Tadlock, Tom Allen, John Woodford, Amos Turney, Jr., Will Hinton, A. J. Winters, J. T. ALWAYS RELIABLE

GIRL WHO COST KING MANUEL'S ROYAL LID

Gaby Deslys, Actress, Credited With Portuguese Monarch's Overthrow, Now Here.

New York.—Gaby Deslys, who is credited by common report with having overthrown the kingdom of Portugal by infatuating King Manuel and enticing from him what was left in the royal treasury, is now here to fill professional engagements. She says she is to receive $18,000 a week and it is probable that some of the $18,000 will be real money. She brought a bewildering array of clothes and jewels and also her reputation as a monarchy destroyer.

The wonder is that this talented actress has not come over sooner. Why this strange delay? A lady with a redolent past and the destroyer of monarchy, she certainly had a right to expect sympathy and appreciation in republican America from the first.

The only reason imaginable for her delay in coming to the country to which foreign artists hasten to make their money as a rule is that she is so modest she did not realize the extent of her exploit. No doubt she said to herself that Manuel was such a little king that his destroying siren would hardly receive credit for having done anything worth while.

And, to tell the truth, Manuel was a very little king even at his best. To one who knew him as intimately as Mlle. Deslys he probably seemed even smaller than he appeared to the average newspaper reader. Compared even with a medium king like the late Leopold of Belgium, he paled into insignificance.

But the people over here are not so carping and critical as to hold that against her. She took the only king that was probably in sight at the time and if he didn't happen to be on whose conduct amounted to very much internationally, that was the lady's misfortune and not her fault. She did her best with the material at hand. Of course, her reception would naturally be a little warmer and her receipts a little larger if she had managed to bring down larger game from the European royal preserves. Had she done that, it might not have been necessary for her to go to the trouble even of dancing in order to make the show a success. But that is another story.

MOOSE CHASES AUTOMOBILE

Big Animal Pursues Auto Party Half a Mile in Mountains of Massachusetts.

Pittsfield, Mass.—As a party of autoists were going over Washington mountain toward Becket, they were chased for half a mile by a moose that is believed to have escaped from Harry Payne Whitney's mountain preserve.

The pursuit was watched by Daniel Camp, who lives near Jacob's Ladder. The automobile gained on the moose, which gave up the chase, left the road and disappeared in the forest. The moose was seen later by James Gallagher of Becket while on a hike near Redtop, the villa of Mrs. Fannie Burgess in Becket.

MOTHER BEAR HOLDS UP UNCLE SAM'S MAIL

Carrier Puts Up Fight With Revolver and Bruin and Cubs Are Driven Off.

Spokane, Wash.—A mother bear with a Bat Nelson battle gleam in her eye and an Ad Wolgast fighting crouch, and her two little cubs, held up Uncle Sam's mail in the road between Sandy and Marmot and gave C. M. Bailey, rural mail carrier on the route, the time of his life when he accepted her challenge the other afternoon.

Bailey was driving leisurely along toward Sandy in his mail wagon behind his two sturdy horses when the bear popped into sight as he rounded a curve. She was standing on her haunches in the middle of the road in a distinctly belligerent attitude, her cubs frisking about her. Bailey was so surprised that he pulled up his horses and waited for developments.

He didn't have to wait very long. With a growl and a flourish of his forepaws, the bear made for the mail carrier, the cubs waddling along after her on all fours. Bailey's horse snorted in terror at this unexpected move by Mother Bruin, and whirled about in the road so sharply that the wagon was upset and the mail and mail carrier spilled out in the dust.

As Bailey picked himself up he pulled his automatic revolver out of his pocket and fired at the bear, which was almost on him. The bullet went true, and she rolled over in the road, snarling and clawing. She seemed to have enough of battle, for the next minute she picked herself up and scampered off into the woods with the cubs, leaving a trail of blood behind her.

As soon as the shaken Bailey could collect himself, he caught his horses, which had stopped after running a short distance down the road, and, with the aid of a party of autoists that came along soon after he righted his wagon and hitched up.

KICKS CHILD OFF TRACK

Engineer Runs Out on Pilot and Saves Little One Just in Time.

Glenwood, Minn.—While running his train out of Dent, W. A. Beardsley, engineer on freight No. 71, saw what seemed to be a blue parcel lying between the rails about twenty car lengths ahead. But it turned out to be a child, who arose and sat down on one of the rails. The emergency brake was applied, but it was impossible to stop in time. Beardsley ran out on the pilot, intending to pick the child up. He reached the pilot too late, but had to extend his foot and kick the child off the rail and down the embankment.

The train was stopped, the child picked up and brought back to the hotel at Dent. A doctor was summoned and it was found that the child was unhurt except that it had a bruise where the engineer's shoe had struck it.

Men Write and Women Keep.

It is one of the settled facts in the history of love letters that men will write and women will keep. A woman cherishes her love letters as she cherishes her mirror or her powder puff. She carries them in her satchel and reads them in the twopenny tube. She ties them in blue ribbons and perfumes them with violette de Parme. She kisses them before she goes to bed and presses them to her bosom before she does her hair up in the morning. She reads them for weeks and knows where to find them for years; and about the only safe thing the man who has written them can do is to marry her.

Good Prison Fare.

If what is said of French prisons be correct the wonder is that there are any people left outside. An official return of the necessities and luxuries supplied recently to the prison department shows that there is no stint. Among the edibles supplied are 84,000 tablets of chocolate, 17,000 kilogrammes of butter, 3,000 kilogrammes of coffee, 85,000 eggs, new laid, of course; 50,000 kilogrammes of Bologna sausage, 2,000 cheeses, 200 kilogrammes of caramels, and ten times that weight of other sweets. A kilogramme is nearly 2½ pounds.

"A Perfect Saw."

"To say nothing and saw wood," seems to me one of the most sagacious phrases passed down by our hard working forebears. Like most sayings which have emanated from manual labor, this is blunt, homely, and, to the loquaciously inclined, painfully accurate. Show me a man bent jack knife-fashion over a saw-horse, with a short log under his buck, and I will point out a man who is minding his own business with admirable zeal. If he must speak, he ceases to saw. While he saws he is necessarily mute. Hence this shrewd phrase, which is, punning aside, a perfect saw.—Atlantic.

Old-Time Gardens.

In the dark ages a garden was only a patch of "simples" tended by a patient laborious monk. But the Italian garden of the day of Lorenzo de Medici had become all that the garden wisdom, skill and expenditure could make. A formal garden of the Villa Falconieri, more than five centuries old, is still considered the most beautiful and dignified ornamental garden in the world, a painter's and a poet's dream of cool, clear pools and stately cypresses. In Japan they go so far as to make every look one gets over walls or through windows a perfect picture.

His Last Word.

Here is one case where the husband had the last word and possibly scored a point. It was during a little spat. His wife had been talking for ten minutes without a letup and the end came only when she asserted vehemently, "There, I hope I've made myself plain!" "Made yourself plain, my dear!" he replied. "Why, bless your heart, I didn't know you had anything to do with it. I thought you were born that way."

Effect of Weather.

The effect of the weather upon crystallization is certain. When it is dry the crystals are large and well defined; when it rains or there is a damp wind the salt crystallizes in fine grains; or again, rain will stop the crystallization entirely or retard it for many days. Even after crystallization has taken place in lumps as large as hazelnuts a damp wind or a rain will reduce the whole mass to a fine granular state.

A Pennsylvania County's Oil Wells.

In McKean county whenever they want funds to run the county affairs they just put down an oil well on the county farm and up the money gushes. The South Penn. drilled a well last week that is doing five barrels a day after being given a shot of 80 quarts of nitroglycerin. A farm like that is a mighty convenient thing for a county to have.—Philadelphia Record.

Speedy Relief From Europe.

Make a poultice by scalding wheat-bread well moistened with milk. Then stir in a good bit of catnip (blossoms are best), and add a few drops of laudanum. Spread on a piece of muslin with a thin muslin or gauze over to keep poultice from sticking to the flesh. Lay over ear, coming well below and back, and as hot as possible, keeping it so with hot water bottle or brick.—National Magazine.

New Life-Preserver.

A new life-preserver, which has been successfully tried, may be introduced into the German navy, writes the American consul from Brunswick. The apparatus, which weighs 5½ pounds, consists of two swimming cushions bound together by straps. The cushions lie upon the breast and back. The apparatus is provided with a small lamp fed by a battery.

Italics.

Italics were first used about A. D. 1500 by Manutius, a Venetian printer, who dedicated them to the Italian states. Hence the name. The first book set up in italics was an edition of Vergil printed at Venice by Aldus in 1501. A copy of this rare book is preserved in the British museum.

Practical Suggestion.

A new association proposes to have all American railroads lined with flowers and hedges, but what our railroad rights of way really need is to be lined with feather beds. What good would it do anybody to fall on a pansy when trains collide?

The Perfection Heater burns nine hours on one filling and is always ready for use. You can move it anywhere it is needed. There is no waste of fuel and heat warming unoccupied rooms. Just the heat you want, when and where you want it.

The Perfection is fitted with an automatic-locking flame spreader that prevents the wick being turned high enough to smoke and is easy to remove and drop back when cleaning.

Narrow Escape.
A domestic servant at Market Drayton had a narrow escape during a recent thunderstorm. The girl had retired to bed leaving the window open and an alarm clock on a chair near the bedside. She was awakened by the smell of burning clothing, and found that the lightning had pierced a hole through the clock and ignited the chair-seating. The clothes of the bed in which she was sleeping were also smouldering.

NOEL! NOEL!
Thus sounds each Christmas bell
Across the winter snow,
But what are the little footprints all
That mark the path from the churchyard wall?
They are those of the children waked tonight
From sleep by the Christmas bells and light:
Ring sweetly, chimes! Soft, soft, my rhymes!
Their beds are under the snow.

Noel! Noel!
Carols each Christmas bell
What are the wraiths of mist
That gather anear the window-pane
Where the winter frost all day has lain?
They are soulless elves, who fain would peep
Within, and laugh at our Christmas cheer:
Ring fleetly, chimes! Swift, swift, my rhymes!
They are made of the mocking mist

The Spirit of Christmas.
There is hardly a festival in the calendar which has such a hold on the hearts of old and young alike as Christmas Day. The ring of the car bells and the voices upon the streets seem to take on a more cheery tone, and the spirit of the time seems to throw a glamour over places and things which ordinarily are devoid of all beauty.

As it is with places, so it is with people. They, too, not only seem to change, but the transformation does take place in millions of hearts to a greater or less degree. The spirit of Christmas even affects people who for the rest of the year are devoid of sentiment and of feeling for their fellows. The most interesting stories of Christmastide are those which will never appear in print—true stories of men and women whose thoughts have been only of their own selfish aims and pleasures, but have been awakened, if only for a day or two, from their usual self-complacency, moved by some force of which they are only half-conscious to do some act of kindness to make the day happier for someone less fortunate than themselves in a worldly way.—The Christian Herald.

The Christmas Spirit.
But don't you see that there is a Santa Claus! He isn't a man in a fur coat, and a reindeer sleigh and all that, but he is the Spirit of Christmas, isn't he? They've personified that and made a saint of him and invented legends about him—for the children, but when we're no longer children and don't believe in him, we still have that Christmas spirit—and it's that that gives presents and makes us feel toward one another, and makes Christmas what it is.—Harvey J. O'Higgins.

Christmas Customs.
It is interesting to trace the origin of festival customs to those connected with Druidical superstitions of classic observances, and it will surprise many to learn that present-day sports very closely resemble the celebrations observed of old in honor of Saturn or Bacchus.

The Roman Saturnalia, which occurred in the winter solstice, were a season of great festivity and rejoicing, honored by many privileges and exemptions. The spirit of gaiety had free charter, and even quarrels were suspended, to be resumed after the holidays.

As a manifestation of the gratitude felt at the renewed prospects of the returning march of the sun, gifts were exchanged and special hymns were sung. These latter were really the Roman representatives of the modern carol.

At the Saturnalia the Roman feasted, sang and danced, as we do at Christmas. A ruler or king was appointed, who enjoyed certain prerogatives. He presided over the sports of the season. Probably he is the ancestor of the lord of misrule, who exercised a similar power in more recent times.

Merriment was a matter of general concern, and the joyous spirit of entire districts is now narrowed to family parties.

It is the touch that makes the whole world kin, and it is a pleasant reminder that, after all, history repeats itself.

Not Blessed.
The presents you forget to give to others who don't forget to give to you are not so blessed.

A Reader Cures His Constipation—Try It Free

Simple way for any family to retain the good health of all its members

The editors of "Health Hints" and "Questions and Answers" have one question that is put to them more often than any other, and which strangely enough, they find the most difficult to answer. That is "How can I cure my constipation?"

Dr. Caldwell, an eminent specialist in diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels, has looked the whole field over, has practised the specialty for forty years and is convinced that the ingredients contained in what is called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the best claim to attention from constipated people.

Its success in the cure of stubborn constipation has done much to displace the use of salts, waters, strong cathartics and such things. Syrup Pepsin, by training the stomach and bowel muscles to again do their work naturally, and with its tonic ingredients strengthening the nerves, brings about a lasting cure. Among its strongest supporters are Mr. John Graveline of 98 Milwaukee Ave., Detroit, Mich., and Mr. J. A. Vernon of Oklahoma City. Thousands of others of both sexes have written to Dr. Caldwell telling of gratifying results. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, or if you want to try it first a free sample bottle can be obtained by writing the doctor.

MATRIMONIAL.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Tuesday contained the following account of the wedding of Mr. Chas. Link, of this city and Miss Adelaide B. Teague, of Kansas City, Mo:

"A couple who registered at the Sinton Hotel as Charles Link, of Paris, Ky., and Miss Adelaide B. Teague, of Kansas City, Mo., strolled up to the deck of the hotel, hand in hand, last evening, and inquired of Clerk Brannin the quickest way to get married. The girl was blushing from ear to ear, and said she was desirous of being married immediately. Clerk Brannin summoned A. C. H. Johnstone, chief clerk of the Princeton Hotel, who was standing near and who is known as 'Cupid's chief aid,' to pilot the couple to Covington, Ky., where a marriage license was secured and the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. G. W. Hagin. After the ceremony the couple returned to Cincinnati.

"The marriage is the culmination of a romance that began several years ago when the groom was a salesman for a large clothing house of Detroit, Mich. When in Kansas City he became acquainted with Miss Teague at a dance. The groom is a grocery dealer of Paris, Ky., where the couple will make their future home."

The bridegroom, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Link and a member of the Link Grocery Company, went to Cincinnati Monday, leaving the impression with his family that he was going to that city to attend to some business matters and the announcement of his marriage came as a surprise to his relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of a well known business man of Kansas City, and an exceedingly attractive young woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Link returned to Paris yesterday and in a few days will go to housekeeping in apartments in the Robneel building.

—Mr. John B. Northcott and Miss Cora M. Thompson were united in marriage at the residence of Mrs. Ella Mernaugh on Seventh street Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, the Rev. E. M. Lightfoot, of the Baptist church officiating.

The wedding, which was solemnized in the presence of but a few witnesses, came in the nature of a surprise. Mr. Northcott, who was a wealthy widower, has been identified with the real estate interests of the city for a number of years and is one of our most prominent citizens.

The bride is from Jefferson, O., and has for some time been in charge of the millinery department in the store of Mr. Harry Simon, and is exceedingly popular with all who know her.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Cincinnati where they will spend several days and returning to this city will take rooms for the present with the Misses Jaynes on Pleasant street.

Brakeman Killed by Train.

Elmer Watkins, of Paris, a brakeman on L. & N. freight train No. 72, northbound, was run over and killed at Snyder, thirty miles south of Richmond, Tuesday night when he fell between the cars of the train upon which he was riding and was ground to death.

Watkins was last seen by the members of the train crew when the freight was nearing Snyder and at that time he was going over the train. It is supposed he lost his footing, falling beneath the train and his presence was not missed until the train reached Richmond. Another train crew picked up his body after being notified to be on the lookout for the missing man, and his mangled remains were taken to Richmond where they were prepared for burial.

Watkins was 32 years of age and had been in the employ of the railroad company for some time. He, with his wife, occupied the flats over the grocery store of A. W. Cottingham, on South Main street. The body was brought here at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and taken to the late residence, where a short funeral service was held Wednesday evening, conducted by Elder J. T. Sharrard and the remains were taken to Chenowee, Ky., for burial Wednesday night on the 10:40 p. m. train for burial.

He is survived by a young wife, his father and mother, six brothers and two sisters who reside at Elkatawa, Breathitt county.

The sons are to inherit equally all the money from notes she held at her death. She bequeaths to her husband, W. W. Shropshire, the income and rents accruing on her homestead farm, on the old Lair pike. At his death it is to descend to her sons, Redmon and John Lair, each sharing equally. The lot she owns in Sheffield, Ala., she divides to her sons, Redmon and John Lair, and names Redmon and John Lair as executors of the estate without bond.
